SUPPORT GROUPS

for teens, young adults and parents

We are excited to offer Open Transition Support Groups for Teens and Young Adults ages 14-22. These groups provide an open forum for sharing questions and challenges faced during the transition into adulthood.

In addition, we are excited to offer a Transition Support and Resource Group for Parents of youth aged 14-22 with social-emotional challenges who would like to meet others with similar concerns and share experiences and resources. Kathy Kelly, the Director of Transition Services at the Northeast Arc, will co-facilitate five of the ten parent sessions.

We request that you RSVP by noon on each Wednesday prior to attending group. In the event of inclement weather, please email us prior to group to be informed in the event of a
